

Please Join Us!

Keeping America Great Through Science, Engineering & STEM Funding

STEM on the Hill™ Schedule

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

Delegations Arrive

AM orientation meetings (optional by delegation)

Individual Orientation Sessions by Participating Organizations and Companies (Optional)

Orientation Session for All Delegations

2:00-4:30

Capitol Visitors' Center

Capitol Plaza
Metro Stop: Union Station (Red line) or Capitol South (Orange & Blue lines) The Visitors' Center is in the middle of the Plaza of the U.S. Capitol Bldg.

2:00 p.m. Getting Started: Today's Agenda

Dr. Robert Spurrier Boege, ASTRA Exec. Director & Chairman, CVD 2018 and STEM on the Hill®

2:05 p.m. Welcome, Acknowledgements & Introductions

Dr. Robert Palazzo, Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences, University of Alabama, Birmingham; Russ Harrison, Director of Government Relations IEEE-USA

2:30 p.m. Congressional S&T Budget Overview

John Sargent, Coordinator Specialist in Science & Technology Policy
U.S. Congressional Research Service

3:00 p.m. What Do Congressional Staff Want to Know from You?

Alex Poirot, Senior Policy Advisor, Rep. Robert Woodall (R-GA-7) and

Dr. Joel Creswell, Legislative Assistant, Rep. Daniel Lipinski (D-IL-3)

3:30 p.m. Team Organizations

4:30 p.m. Adjourn

Guests move on to the Exhibits and Awards Reception in the Rayburn House Office Building Banquet Rooms B 2043 — B 2045

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

STEM on the Hill Exhibit & George E. Brown, Jr. AWARDS Reception

5:00 p.m. — 7:00 p.m.

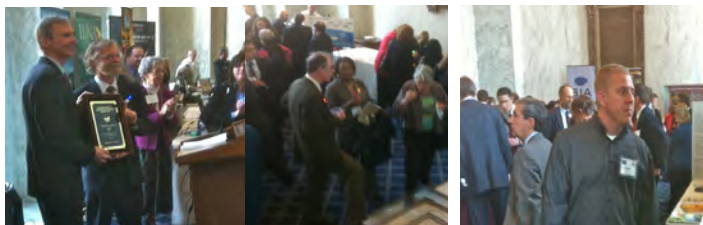

5:00 p.m.

Exhibits Open & Reception Begins

5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

George E. Brown, Jr. Awards

Rayburn Banquet Rooms
Rooms B 2043 — B 2045 of
Rayburn House Office Building

Wednesday, May 9, 2018

8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

CONGRESSIONAL VISITS ON CAPITOL HILL

*By appointment only.
Arranged by individual participating SETWG organizations...*